Textile Workshops at Foleshill Library

With Textile Artist: Heather Rhule ©2019

Over the summer textile workshops at Foleshill Library are currently taking place in support of The Godiva Trust.

The aim is to encourage inclusion, build confidence and discover and learn new print skills and techniques in a supportive relaxing environment.

Working with themes of nature as a source of inspiration participants learn to produce prints using various print techniques and applique.

We have also learnt much from each other sharing experiences and our histories whilst printing and sewing together during workshops.
